

William Richards 1756

The will of William Richards of Wootton in the parish of Cumnor in the County of Berks. In the Grace of God Amen this eighth day of December 1755. I, William Richards of Wootton in the parish of Cumnor in the County of Berks, yeoman, being sick & weak in body, but of perfect mind & memory, thanks be given unto God; there forestalling into mind the mortality of my body & knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make & ordain this my last will & testament: that is to say principally & first of all, I give & recommend my soul into the hands of almighty God that gives it & my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial at the discretion of my executors, nothing doubting but at the general Resurrection I shall receive the solace again by the mighty power of God & as touching such worldly state wherewith it hath pleased to leave this life, I give, demise & disperse of the same in the following manner & form. Imprimis, I deposit the thirds of my free land estate & the tythe which I got of my sister Jane Richards unto Edward Mayow of Oxford & James White of Mainthery of farm in Oxon, yeoman, in Trust, whom I constitute, make & ordain my sole executors of this my last will & testament, nevertheless to permit & suffer Elizabeth, my beloved wife, to hold & enjoy the said premises until my daughter Elizabeth shall come to the age of twenty three years, then the tythe to be sold to my son William for one & 2 pounds, if he shall think fit, & give it to my daughter Elizabeth in one year after he shall come to the possession of it, but in case my daughter Elizabeth should die before she shall come to the possession of it, then I give such to my son Richard the tythe of my said estate for his brother William to pay him the yearly rent as it becomes due. Item I give unto my son William the sum of one hundred pounds, to be paid him out of my stock, goods & chattels, when he shall require it. All the remainder of my stock, goods & chattels I give unto my loving wife Elizabeth during her life & then to be equally divided between my four sons Thomas Richard James & Edward & likewise fifty pounds apiece to be paid two years after their brother who hath given a bond for the same (Wm. Richards), Thomas & Richard to be paid two years after their brother Wm. shall come to the possession of my estate, James & Edward to be paid in four years after he comes to the possession of my estate; as for my son John, I give him ten pounds to be paid him immediately after my decease as being provided for before. Item I give twenty shillings worth of bread to the poor of Wootton & Boars Hill a week or two after my decease & I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke & disannul all & every other former testaments & wills, legacies & bequests & executors, by any ways before framed, willed & bequeathed, ratifying & confirming this to be my last will & testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal the day & year above written. I, Wm Richards signed, sealed, published, pronounced & declared by the said Wm. Richards as his last will & testament in the presence of us the subscribers Langley Poulser, the mark of John Rose, the mark of Jonathan Sheers.
